What Came of a Stolen Interview.

Thomas Ashwood was a prisoner in a Pittsburg police court. A policeman had caught him in the yard back of Mr. Balmfield's residence, at midnight opening a shutter. He did not look like a burglar, but the circumstances were against him, and he would not make any explanation of his conduct. The Justice was about to commit him for trial, when Miss Coulter, a niece of the Balmfields, stepping forward asked to be a witness. She said that the supposed robber was a lover of hers, that he had been forbidden to see her, and that she had invited him to a stolen interview at the window. The complaint was dismissed.

Tigers as Pets.

Among the pets which are newly coming into fashion are playful young tigers. At any rate, one which is described as a "beautifully and splendidly-striped tigress," and whose mirthfulness and docility were especially dwelt upon, was sold a few days ago in London for fifty-two guineas. It was one of the most playful tigers ever known in India, which, getting loose one fine summer's evening in the walled city of Jeypore devoured or otherwise disposed of more than twenty of the Rajah's loyal subjects before its jocularly was satisfied; and not long ago a delightfully docile specimen walked off with its keeper in the vicinity of Baroda.

A Successful Disguise.

Allie Keith was a good-looking boy of 14 at Westfield, Mass. He dressed himself in his sister's clothes, ran away in them to Springfield, and got employment as a salesgirl in a bookstore. He made such a winsome girl, and flirted so naturally with the male customers, that he soon became a great attraction at the place. He was a favorite, too, with the girls of the house where he boarded, and none of them suspected that he had no right to wear petticoats. His mother at length discovered and exposed him.

A Cruel Clergyman.

A hog killed and ate some of the Rev. Bryant Ransom's fine chickens at Mount Vernon, Ohio. The annoyed clergyman caught the brute and cut out one of its eyes. He had intended to destroy its sight entirely, so that it could see no more chickens to catch, but through pity he left the job half completed. His congregation, however, do not credit him with much mercy, and have resolved to put him to trial for the act.

A Girl's Strange Fancy.

A very pretty Sunday school song is the one entitled "Put your armor on, my boys." There is, however, a young lady in our town who doesn't like to hear it. She says it sounds like "Put your arm around me, boys," and it makes her feel lonesome.

The Great Desideratum found at last. Castor oil made pleasant. Parry's palatable CASTOR OIL is equal in medicinal activity to the ordinary unprepared Castor Oil, but has a pleasant in place of a nauseous taste. It is easily taken and retained by the stomach, even of delicate persons. Children take it readily and make no fuss about it. Osburn & Shoe-maker, Agents for Washoe County. apr17

FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1880

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES A. GARFIELD,
OF OHIO

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
OF NEW YORK.

THE STATE TREASURY AND THE RENO BANK.

The Carson Appeal of yesterday has the following: "Mr. Crockett's display of bad judgment was in sending the checks to the bank instead of taking them in person. If the bank checks were out of his possession a single hour the State ran the risk of never seeing them again. The fact that the State Treasurer was obliged to leave Carson at three o'clock in the morning and drive to Reno to pull the State's money out from the ruins of a falling financial institution shows that a great risk was taken. As the matter now stands Mr. Crockett has been enabled to account for every dollar in the Treasury, and no one can accuse him of criminal intent. In future, however, it will be better for the State to lose the one-fourth of one per cent. than that a bank in which the Treasurer is a stockholder should save a paltry sum in express charges."

GARFIELD AND THE SALARY GRAB.

A correspondent of the Virginia Chronicle, having inquired if Garfield was "one of the salary-grabbers," that rabid Democratic journal had the candor to make the following statement in reply:

"General Garfield's course on the salary grab is susceptible of an explanation which is not creditable to him. It is stated that he was opposed to it from its inception, voted against it in committee and only voted for it in the House to save the appropriation bill to which it had been attached a rider. He was one of the first to return his back pay to the Treasury, and at the following session voted for the repeal of the measure."

A BANK COMMISSIONER NEEDED.

Nevada needs a Bank Commissioner such as California has. The Board of Bank Commissioners of California consists of three members. One Commissioner would do for Nevada. In California the Commissioners make a searching examination into the affairs of each and every bank in the State, and publish a report of the financial standing of every such institution twice a year. The Bank Commission has been a great public benefit in California. Let the next Legislature appoint a Bank Commissioner for Nevada with powers like those conferred upon the Bank Commissioners of California.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Virginia City papers are advocating a more economical method of local government. The Enterprise advocates the abolition of municipal governments of Virginia and Gold Hill, and the consolidation of those two places with Storey county, whose affairs could be efficiently and cheaply administered by a board of county Commissioners. The fact is they are hard up on the Comstock and obliged to cut down expenses.

Two ex-Missourians were talking in the GAZETTE office to-day about the illiteracy of the people in the south western part of Missouri. One of them said that when he visited Missouri four years ago the population were as ignorant as ever. Not over fifty per cent of its male adults could read or write. He suggests that they should be put on a Reservation.

Leading Democrats contended two weeks ago that unless Tilden were nominated at Cincinnati they would go into the campaign without an issue, and would come out of it in defeat. Tilden was not nominated. Therefore, according to the best Democratic authorities, the Democrats have no issue in the campaign, and will surely be defeated.

The Bulletin states that as yet no exact figures of the population of San Francisco can be obtained from the Supervisors of the United States Census. He is satisfied, however, that the number of inhabitants in the city does not exceed 240,000, and may fall slightly below this figure. He holds that there has been a decrease of population since 1877.

The trustees of the Agricultural Society will decide before Monday night upon the advisability of changing the date for holding the Fair. The reasons which make a change desirable are given in a letter from Sacramento which appears in another column.

Secretary Schurz proposes making an extended trip to the West this summer, leaving Washington about the middle of July. He will go to the Pacific coast, stopping at the Western Shoshone and Pyramid Lake Indian Reservations.

A San correspondent attributes Conkling's defeat in the Chicago Convention to the fact that a beautiful woman sat in the gallery and flirted with the handsome Senator so much that he lost his political vigilance.

The Bulletin says there is very good reason to believe that Governor Perkins has decided to remove Louis Kaplan from the office of Registrar of Voters, and that he has tendered the position to another—a Republican.

A Supervisor of the census writes to the department at Washington, that the population of Chicago will be less than 495,000, and says to-day that it may reach half a million.

The Democratic State Central Committee will meet in Virginia City July 15 to elect an Executive Committee and make arrangements for the campaign.

A highly eulogistic obituary of the late Samuel J. Tilden appeared in the New York Sun of the 25th instant, the day after Hancock's nomination.

The Enterprise is now calling attention to the agricultural capabilities of the Comstock. Virginia must be in a bad way.

That truly Democratic scorpion of titles, blunt and honest James C. Hagerman of Reno, was dubbed General by the Cincinnati reporters.

William H. English of Indiana gave a dollar to the Chicago sufferers. That will make Illinois go Democratic.

Seventy-nine fatal cases of sunstroke occurred for the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday in New York.

Lew Chung, a 100-pound Chinaman, was Coxswain of the Yale boat in the race with Harvard, yesterday.

Sixty lives were lost by the burning of the steamer Seawanhaka on Long Island sound last Monday.

China and Russia have gone to war, and skirmishing is reported along the frontier.

The Democratic ticket is composed of a money bag tied to a political nobody.

The San Francisco Stock Boards adjourned this afternoon until Wednesday next.

Does anybody know what Hancock thinks about anything?

Salaries of Nevada Postmasters.

There has been a readjustment of the salaries of Nevada Postmasters. They now stand as follows: Austin, $2,000, increase of $200; Carson City, $2,600, an increase of $200; Elko, $1,600; Eureka, 2,500, a reduction of $200; Gold Hill, $2,500, a reduction of $200; Hamilton, $1,600, an increase of $100; Pioche, $1,600, a reduction of $100; Reno, $2,100, a reduction of $100; Tuscarora, $2,100; Virginia, $2,100; Winnemucca, $1,500, an increase of $200.

A Free-Handed Congressman.

From an Interview With Howard Carroll in the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Congressman Starin never subscribes less than $30,000 to the Republican campaign fund in New York; but it is a matter of principle with him never to spend a cent to secure a nomination either for himself or his friends. In the campaign for the governorship, which his friends made in his behalf last fall, he did not pay out a dollar, but, subsequently in one way and another, he spent $25,000 to elect Gov. Cornell. He spent no money in Chicago.

A Tower of Strength.

From the Boston Herald.

"General Garfield's name will be a tower of strength with all classes who recognize that law, order, stability, and education are essential to our prosperity as a people. He represents the principles which underlie our civilization and give life and vigor to our institutions; and while sufficiently in sympathy with that sentiment of the imperial West which regards the republic as a nation, he has always shown himself a sincere and devoted friend of local self-government by the several States."

Impure Breath.

Among all the disagreeable consequences that follow the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most mortifying and unpleasant to its possessor, and it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society; and yet the cause of it may easily be removed by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, FRAGRANT SOZODONT. It purifies and sweetens the breath, cools and refreshes the mouth, and gives a pearl-like appearance to the teeth. Gentlemen who indulge in smoking should cleanse their teeth with SOZODONT, as it removes all unpleasant odors of the weed. Ask your druggist for it. July-1m-D&W

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen in this vicinity, known to every one as a most influential citizen, and Christian Minister of the M. E. Church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure." It is having a tremendous sale over our counters and is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of Lung Diseases, such as nothing else has done. Bourbon, Ind., May 15, 1878. Drs. Matchett & France. Sold by Osburn & Shoe maker, Druggists, Reno, Nevada.

Stop That Cough

With a sample bottle of Kaiser's German Elixir. This is the most wonderful cough remedy ever introduced, being mild, yet powerful in its action, and soothing under all circumstances. Old and young may use it with perfect security. It is rich in the medicinal properties of tar, wild cherry and horehound. Ask your druggists, Messrs. Osburn & Shoe maker, about its merits. They sell large quantities of it and say it supercedes all others. The genuine bears the Prussian coat of arms and the facsimile signature of Dr. Kaiser, on the wrapper and has his name blown in every 75 cent bottle. Samples 25 cent. Large size 75 cents. Feb-2-d&w
